

Such Stuff As Dreams

An Evening of Music and Film

Reinventing the cello/piano genre into a concert experience unlike any other, “Such Stuff as Dreams” combines the many talents of cellist-filmmaker Nicholas Canellakis and pianist-composer Michael Stephen Brown into one evening. Featured on the program are two films – Canellakis’s latest short comedy My New Cello, and Such Stuff as Dreams, a mesmerizing new multimedia work for film and live score, directed by Canellakis and composed by Brown, to be premiered during the 24-25 season.

Alongside will be evocative and thrilling music by composers with strong ties to the world of film.

My New Cello (2023) – Film by Nick Canellakis - featuring an all-cello original score – (11 mins)

Erich Korngold: Serenade from the Snowman (4)

Sergei Prokofiev: Sonata for cello and piano (25)

Such Stuff as Dreams (2024) – New film, directed by Canellakis with live cello-piano score by Michael Stephen Brown (10)

Leoš Janáček: Pohádka (12)

Sergei Rachmaninoff: Lied (3)

George Gershwin: 3 preludes (7)

Don Ellis: Bulgarian Bulge (4)

Presented by the Canellakis-Brown Duo

